

Business Fact Sheet

AUCTION FACTS

- Purpose: The majority of donations to The Long Ridge School come from our Annual Auction and Benefit. It is a wonderful community-building event that joins current parents, alumni parents, grandparents, alumni, faculty, and friends in support of a common cause. All money raised helps fulfill needs that would not be possible with tuition dollars alone. Donations help provide financial aid, faculty development and other initiatives. Last year, thanks to the generosity of 200 area businesses, the school raised over $100,000.
- Who it Helps: Our current enrollment includes students from Stamford, Greenwich, Old Greenwich, New Canaan, Riverside, Darien, Wilton and Norwalk in Connecticut and Pound Ridge, Mount Kisco, Bedford, and South Salem in New York. Over 40% of our students receive financial aid.
- Attendees: Long Ridge Parents and Family, Alumni, Community Members
- What: Silent and Live Auction with Dinner
- When: Friday, May 3, 2019
- Where: The Long Ridge School, Stamford, Connecticut
- Theme: Mardi Gras

About The Long Ridge School

The Long Ridge School (LRS) is a diverse community of learners where children are respected as individuals with innate curiosity. LRS believes children flourish in a small, caring and academically challenging environment where learning is an active and joyful experience. At LRS children develop the skills, motivation, and values, which allow them to become successful students, responsible people and lifelong learners. The Long Ridge School is very grateful for our many donors who generously give to support the school's important programs. All donors receive an acknowledgement in the Auction catalog and program.

- The School: An independent, coeducational day school enrolling students from two years old through grade five.
- The Students: LRS enrolls children from diverse economic, racial, religious and social backgrounds.
- Head of School: John Ora
- Address: 478 Erskine Rd. Stamford, Connecticut 06903
- Phone: 203-322-7693